7. Announcements

Trainwreck had to pull out of the event, but a replacement band was able to be contracted. The band added to fill the spot is The Millennials. Saturday Stargazing and Carnival set up started to overlap unexpectedly, so a big thank you to Dave Bricker, Todd Fonfara, and John Robinson for handling that situation when the issue arose.

Also, John Robinson and Todd Fonfara noticed the original beer tent was too small and made a judgment call to get a larger size. It was agreed that this was the right decision to make, and the adjustments are appreciated.

8. Old Business

a. Discussion and Updates Regarding 2021 HomerFest Planning and 20th Anniversary

1. Parking / Pedestrian Pathway / Parking Passes

Set up for parking areas has begun. Bollards are being used for set up and will be adjusted as the set-up crew sees fit. Some of the lawn has already been cut and the Public Works department is planning to have it all cut with fencing up by tomorrow (23rd). Vendors parking passes will be distributed when they come to set up their booth/truck. Band passes have been mailed out, and they will receive them before their time slot for performing. Volunteer parking passes were handed out to the committee during the meeting. The people mover route was discussed to determine the easiest route. Mike Bonomo and Rob Rivera were added to the volunteer list for people mover drivers, and there is still a need for more drivers.

2. Festival Layout / Tents

The larger tent and the food vendor tents are up. The only food vendor that is still not set up is Smokin' Z. The tent company were out of 15' x 15' tents that were going to be used for first aid; an alternative tent was provided by the Lockport Fire District.

4. Incident Action Plan

The Incident Action Plan was reviewed.

All signs that have been requested are already printed or in the process of being printed. The color-coded signs for parking will be created on Wednesday by John Robinson and Amy Blank.

8. Parade

All things are set up and ready for the parade. There are 40 vendors signed up for the event. The Wiener Mobile will be at the start of the parade so that it is stationed and ready for people by the time the parade is over. It will be kept in Culver Park so that it does not interfere with the carnival and still allow for photos and viewing. If the parade does not occur due to different cancellation situations the Honey Bear Dancers will come to HomerFest and perform at the fest.

9. Carnival
