

Tree Guide for Homer Glen's Memorial Program

August 2025

American Hornbeam (Carpinus caroliniana)

Characteristics:

- Height and spread between 20 to 35 feet
- Bloom in April
- Attract birds
- Fall colors

American Sweetgum (Liquidambar styraciflua)

Characteristics:

- Mature height is 60 to 75 feet
- Brilliant fall colors
- Fruit shaped like spherical stars

Tree Guide for Homer Glen's Memorial Program

August 2025

Linden/ Basswood (Tilia species)

Characteristics:

- Mature height is 60 to 80 feet
- Yellow flowers bloom May - June
- Attracts butterflies
- Fall foliage are brown and green

Oak (Quercus species)

Characteristics:

- Large trees
- Grouped as Red Oaks & White Oaks
- Oak have acorns as fruit/nuts
- Attracts birds and small mammals

Tree Guide for Homer Glen's Memorial Program

August 2025

Eastern White Pine (Pinus strobus)

Characteristics:

- Mature height is between 50 to 80 feet
- Year-round, evergreen foliage
- Attracts songbirds, moths, small mammals

Hackberry (Celtis occidentalis)

Characteristics:

- Mature height is between 40 to 60 feet
- Seasonally loses leaves
- Purple-brown berries
- Attracts songbirds, migrant birds, game mammals, butterflies

Tree Guide for Homer Glen's Memorial Program

August 2025

Eastern Redbud (Cercis canadensis)

Characteristics:

- Mature height is between 20 to 30 feet
- Seasonally loses leaves, fall colors
- Purplish-pink flowers in April and May
- Attracts nectar-seeking insects, butterflies, songbirds

Photo Credits:

Missouri Botanical Garden, Wendy Cutler CC by 2.0, John Hagstrom, Karren Wcisel, John Hilty, University of Minnesota, Great Plains Nursery, The Morton Arboretum, Arbor Day Foundation, Deborah J.G. Brown, Edward A. Hedborn, Jr., Sharon Yiesla, Erin Garrett, Ken Johnson